Pianist Yuki Negishi 根岸由起 plays works by female and other famous composers at the Lansdowne Club, the venue with a long and distinguished history, where Anglo-Japanese Alliance 日英同盟 was signed in 1902.

Yuki Negishi has established herself as a pianist of rare poetry, passion, and virtuosity, equally at home as an adjudicator, educator and researcher, captivating audiences wherever she performs around the world. Yuki has already performed in over 600 concerts in the UK alone, including many of the most important halls and festivals, and regularly performs about 30 concerts a year as recitalist, concerto soloist and chamber musician in countries such as the Netherlands (Concertgebouw), France, Germany, Switzerland (Tonhalle), Italy (Festival di Londra, Blanc European Festival, Artepiano International Festival), Romania, Japan, China, Bangladesh and the USA.

The proceeds from this concert will be donated to PAWA, an associated member of FIWAL. PAWA (Pan-Asian Women's Association) is a UK-registered Charity to support the education of underprivileged teenage girls in Asia.
